The Institute for Quantitative Theory and Methods is offering a 10-15 hour a week graduate fellowship funded by the Laney Graduate School (LGS). The fellowship period is September 1st, 2019 through May 31, 2020. The graduate fellow will collaborate with QTM’s director, staff, and affiliated faculty on Institute projects, curriculum development, event support, and development and outreach-related activities to advance QTM’s mission. The graduate fellow will also interface and build networks with other departments and programs, particularly through interdisciplinary engagement among Emory’s graduate students.

Compensation: This is a 9-month position paying $18,500, plus LGS student health insurance subsidy.

Eligibility
- Applicants must be full time students in a doctoral program, in good standing
- Applicants must be in candidacy at the time of application
- Graduate students in their 7th or lower year of graduate study at the time of application are eligible to apply
- Applicants may not previously have held an Emory completion fellowship

Submission Guidelines
Applications should contain the following items:
- A statement of purpose / cover letter
- A curriculum vitae or resume
- An unofficial Emory transcript

To apply:
All nominations and applications, including supporting materials, will be uploaded using the ADMIT system: https://www.applyweb.com/emoryfel/index.ftl
- If you do not have an ADMIT account already, create one
- Follow the upload prompts
- You will need to upload nomination or application items as pdf files.

Evaluation Criteria
- Organizational ability, as described in the cover letter
- The quality of the applicant's academic performance
- Preference will be given to applicants with a quantitative background

Review Process
Applications will be reviewed by the QTM faculty and staff. Applicants will be asked to give a brief interview before being selected.

Award Notification
Applicants will be notified by late March 2019. Students must accept or decline internal Emory fellowships by April 15, 2019.

Questions? Contact Eva Lewandowski at iqtm@emory.edu