

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT & CAREER PLANNING

MARCH UPCOMING EVENTS

One-on-One Career Coaching

Graduate Students are invited to sign up for one-on-one coaching with Laney's career coaches. Register here!

An Introduction to the German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD)

The Center for Faculty Development and Excellence and the Halle Institute for Global Research partner to present an information session for graduate students on opportunities through the German Academic Exchange Service (Deutscher Akademischer Austausch Dienst, or DAAD). DAAD is a private, publicly funded, self-governing organization of higher education institutions in Germany. DAAD offers opportunities that take scholars and researchers from many different disciplines and fields of study to German universities, libraries, archives, laboratories, etc., for research stays, guest lectureships, and more.

Date: Tuesday, March 17, 2020

Time: 9:30am – 10:15am

Location: Woodruff Library, Suite 216

To register, contact: halle.global@emory.edu

Information Session from The Foreign Commercial Service (FCS), the Foreign Service arm of the U.S. Department of Commerce

Commercial Officers work to connect U.S. businesses with potential partners abroad and create the opportunity for U.S. businesses to become international. A little known part of the Foreign Service family, this is an exciting career opportunity for graduates in a wide variety of disciplines such as Economics, Business, MBA programs, International Affairs, International Development, Political Science, Mathematics, Sociology, Anthropology, and any other programs like French Studies, Asian Studies, and African Studies. The goal of the information is to increase awareness about this career opportunity and promote recruitment for the next assessment/application cycle, which is coming up this summer.

Date: Tuesday, March 17, 2020

Time: 6:30 pm-7:30 pm

Location: White Hall, Room 206

Register here

Imagine PhD Training

In this interactive workshop, graduate students will walk through a career assessment about skills, interests, and values, and they will explore the range of career options available to individuals with advanced degrees in the humanities and social sciences.

Date: Wednesday, March 18, 2020

Time: 2 pm-4 pm

Location: School of Medicine, Room 153A

Register here

Writing a Data Management Plan for NSF and NEH

Learn how to write a Data Management Plan (DMP) for your grant proposal. We will cover the basics of a DMP as required for research sponsored by federal agencies such as the National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH) and the National Science Foundation (NSF). Example plans drawn from NSF and NEH proposals will be explored. This session is offered in partnership with the Emory Libraries.

Date: Thursday, March 19, 2020

Time: 10 am-11 am

Location: Woodruff Library, Room 314

Register here

Write-Up Fellowship Forum

The Write-up Fellowship Forum introduces students to the unique features of a dissertation completion fellowship application. Write-up fellowship proposals are a distinct sub-genre of grant writing, and this session will describe the genre in detail. Plenty of time for questions and answers will be provided. Intended audience: Advanced graduate students who intend to apply for a dissertation completion fellowship in next fall's competition.

Date: Wednesday, March 25, 2020

Time: 4 pm – 5:30 pm

Location: The Callaway Center S420

Register here

Pre-Text Workshop

Director of Engaged Learning, Dr. Vialla Hartfield-Méndez, will facilitate a workshop using the “Pre-Texts” pedagogical approach. The simple protocol of Pre-Texts invites participants to engage with a complex text (could be literary, scientific, historical, political, philosophical, theoretical, etc.) through the lens of multiple art forms, thus driving close reading, innovation, critical thinking, and full participation. This workshop will provide an introduction to the approach, a discussion of how it has been used in multiple settings, and a discussion of how participants might use it in their teaching. Hartfield-Méndez will also be available for additional consultation and practice sessions afterward.

Date: Thursday, March 26, 2020

Time: 4:30 pm-7:30 pm (Light dinner provided)

Location: Jones Room (Woodruff Library)

Register here!

Beginning Grant Writing Workshop

The workshop will help you understand the grant writing genre: how to write for a multi-disciplinary audience and how to make the sort of presentation that grant reviewers find convincing. Activities include a mock grant review panel discussion so that students can see how proposals are evaluated and how their drafts are understood by the panel.

The deadline to apply is Tuesday, March 17, 2020.

Date: Monday, March 30, 2020

Time: 1 pm-5 pm

Location: Information will be sent to selected applicants

Register here

Interdisciplinary Policy Internships

Congressional Budget Office - Internship for Graduate Students

This summer internship is a unique paid program for master's and PhD students to obtain real-life experience in policymaking and the federal budget process. We seek students pursuing degrees in economics, public policy, public affairs, health policy, finance, and other quantitative fields. Students should submit a cover letter, a resume, an unofficial copy of transcripts (first-year graduate students MUST also submit an unofficial copy of their undergraduate transcripts), and contact information for 2 references (preferably an employment and academic). CBO can consider US citizens and non-citizens who are permanent residents of the US seeking citizenship.

Deadline: Saturday, February 28, 2020
Time: Beginning Tuesday, May 26, 2020
Duration: 10 weeks
Apply here

US DOE - Office of Science Graduate Student Research

The U.S. Department of Energy's Office of Science is now accepting applications for the Office of Science Graduate Student Research (SCGSR) program 2020 Solicitation 1. The SCGSR program provides doctoral dissertation/thesis research opportunities for graduate students at DOE national laboratories. Details about the program, research areas, and online application can be found below. There are four new transdisciplinary research areas for encouraging graduate training activities at the convergence of multiple disciplines and communities, including Microelectronics, Data Science, Fundamental Symmetries, and Accelerator Science. We strongly encourage applications in these areas.

Deadline: Friday, May 6, 2020
Time: 5 pm Eastern Time
Apply here

Women's Congressional Policy Institute Fellowship

The fellowships are extended each year to a select number of students pursuing a graduate degree or those who have recently completed a master's, doctorate, or professional degree with a proven commitment to equity for women. Fellows gain practical policymaking experience and graduate credit as they work from January to July in Congressional offices.

The Fellowships are designed to train potential leaders in public policy formation to examine issues from the perspective, experiences, and needs of women. This program is unique—the only graduate-level fellowship program on Capitol Hill focused on women.

Time: January – July 2021
Deadline: Spring 2021 application will open soon
More information here